FROM THE DESK OF FR. ERIC ANDERSEN

Last Sunday, I preached about the gift of myrrh brought by the Magi and related it to the importance of preparing for and celebrating a proper Catholic funeral and burial. How does one prepare for a proper Catholic funeral and burial? What would that look like? Certainly, it is not just about spending a lot of money: it need not be expensive; but it should involve a lot of care and preparation, and faith. The following is the first installment of a series:

It begins at baptism: one dies with Christ in the watery tomb of the baptismal font and rises again from the water into new life and is immediately anointed with the Chrism of Salvation. When approaching death at the end of one's life, but well before death is imminent, one should call the priest. The body which was anointed at Baptism, anointed again at Confirmation, and in some cases anointed again for the sacrament of Holy Orders, should receive the last (extreme) anointing (thus Extreme Unction, aka Anointing of the Sick).

The body thus anointed is then prepared for burial after death. We imitate Christ in His burial. Jesus Christ was not cremated. His body was prepared with spices and wrapped in linen cloths and buried. One could say that the preparation of a body and the clothing of a Christian in his or her finest is a preparation to meet the Lord when He comes again to raise the dead from their tombs and judge them. We want to look our best for that day! We could say that the nice clothes in which we are buried signify the wedding garments to be worn when the Bridegroom returns.

So what about cremation? The Funeral Policy of the Archdiocese of Portland states the following summarizing Canon 1176 §3: "The Church maintains and earnestly recommends that the members of the faithful observe the pious custom of burying the bodies of the deceased. However, the Church also hold cremation as an option and does not prohibit its practice unless it is chosen for purposes that are contrary to the Christian faith, such as:

- a) the deceased or those responsible for the burial have no belief in the resurrection;
- b) the choice is based on a sectarian spirit;
- c) there is a hatred of the Catholic religion or the Church" (page 6).

The document continues: "Ad resurgendum cum Christo continues: 'In order that every appearance of pantheism, naturalism or nihilism be avoided, it is not permitted to scatter the ashes of the faithful...nor may they be preserved in mementos, pieces of jewelry or other objects.' #7" (pg. 6).

- When planning a funeral liturgy the parish should clearly determine the intentions of the family regarding the interment of cremated remains in order to avoid practices contrary to Church norms.
- Archdiocesan and parish cemeteries should make provision for the interment of cremated remains.
- Burial at sea is allowed. Cremated remains should however be submerged in a container, not scattered.
- A priest or parish minister should not preside or lead prayers in a committal service during which the cremated remains are scattered, rather than interred" (p. 7).

9 DAYS FOR LIFE

How do we live out the message of Christmas in the New Year, rather than pack it away with the ornaments? Each year the Octave Day of Christmas falls on the first day of the New Year, on which we also celebrate the Solemnity of the Blessed Virgin Mary, the Mother of God. Her open heart and courageous “yes” to God show us how to live year-round—with hearts open to the Lord, following where He leads. We are called to place our trust in Him, to enter compassionately into the suffering of others, and to love one another as Christ loves us. Like Our Blessed Mother welcomed Jesus, we are called to cherish and protect the gift of human life, at every stage and in every circumstance. One way to live out the message of Christmas and follow Our Lady’s example is to join 9 Days for Life, a digital pilgrimage of prayer and charitable action. The U.S. Catholic bishops invite you to join thousands of Catholics nationwide from Thursday, January 18 – Friday, January 26. Join today at www.9daysforlife.com!

INSTRUCTION IN THE CATHOLIC FAITH

If you have been coming to Mass for a while, but are not Catholic, we invite you to look deeper into the Catholic faith. Come and meet some faithful Catholics who would consider it a privilege to get to know you in an open and welcoming environment. The faith formation sessions are opportunities for you to ask any perplexing and difficult questions you may have about the Church. Each Thursday evening, we begin at 7:00 p.m. with Vespers in the Church. Class resumes, after Vespers, in the rectory basement starting at 7:30 p.m. Rachel Weldon, Faith Formation Director 503-234-2964 rweldon@archdpdx.org.

TRAVELING CRIB

The Traveling Crib will be coming to St. Stephen’s for the month of February. The crib will be here to collect baby items and maternity supplies for Pregnancy & Parenting Support Program at Catholic Charities. This will be a practical way we can support women facing difficult situations, who have said “YES” to new life. Last year, Pregnancy & Parenting Support Program supported over 200 women and their babies with diapers, clothes, counseling, parenting and relationship education classes, rent and utility assistance. Items that are most needed include: new or gently used 0 – 3 month clothes, diaper wipes, pack-n-plays, and maternity clothes. There will be a complete list of needed items next to the crib when it arrives. For more information call 503-238-5196. Thank you for your ongoing generosity and partnership in our life-affirming ministry!
