FROM THE DESK OF FR. ERIC ANDERSEN

On the 25th of February in the year of Our Lord 1916, Pope Benedict XV issued an Apostolic Brief relating to the Chair of Unity Octave; aka., the Church Unity Octave (now referred to as the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity). His Holiness wrote:

"In every age it has been the concern of the Roman Pontiffs, Our Predecessors, and likewise it concerns Us very much, that Christians who have unfortunately withdrawn from the Catholic Faith should at length be recalled to it as to a forsaken Mother. For in the Unity of Faith the foremost characteristic of the Truth of the Church shines forth, and it is thus that the Apostle Paul exhorts the Ephesians to preserve the unity of the spirit in the bond of peace, by proclaiming that 'there is one Lord, one faith, one Baptism' [4:5].

...And so, in order that the prayers [elsewhere] mentioned may be offered to God everywhere and with abundant fruit of souls and thus the desired end may be more easily attained, We...mercifully grant and bestow in the Lord a plenary indulgence and remission of all their sins to each and all the Faithful of Christ of either sex in the whole world, who, from the 18th day of the month of January...until the 25th day of the same month, on which the Conversion of St. Paul is commemorated, shall recite every year once a day the prayers which are subjoined and on the last day of this Octave, truly penitent and confessed and refreshed with Holy Communion, shall visit any Church or public Oratory and there say these prayers to God for the concord of Christian Rulers, the extirpation of heresies, the conversion of sinners and for the exaltation of Our Mother the Church."

The original prayer is as follows:

Antiphon: (Jn. 17:21). That they all may be One as Thou, Father, in Me, and I in Thee: that they may also be One in Us, that the world may believe that Thou has sent Me.

V. I say to thee that thou art Peter.

R. And upon this rock I will build My Church.

Prayer: O Lord Jesus Christ, Who saidst unto Thine Apostles: Peace I leave with you, My peace I give unto you; regard not my sins but the faith of Thy Church; and vouchsafe to grant unto her that peace and unity which are agreeable to Thy Will; Who livest and reignest God, world without end. Amen."

The current legislation is as follows, according to the 1999 Manual of Indulgences:

Concession #11: Week of Prayer for Christian Unity.

The Catholic Church takes especially to heart the prayer her Founder offered to the Father the day before he suffered, "That all may be one!", and therefore she strenuously encourages the faithful to pray without ceasing for the unity of Christians.

§1. A plenary indulgence is granted to the faithful who participate in some of the services during the Week of Christian Unity and assist at the closing of this same week.

§2. A partial indulgence is granted to the faithful who devoutly recite an appropriately approved prayer for the unity of Christians.

A full set of prayers and daily intentions, as published by Pope Pius XII in 1956 for the Octave can be found at [http://www.cantius.org/go/liturgy/devotions/devotional\_life/church\_unity\_octave/]

PHILOSOPHY NIGHT

Thursday, January 24th with Rolando Moreno 7 pm in the Rectory Basement. Ages high school and up. This month, Rolando Moreno presents a talk based upon Romano Guardini's book, "Letters From Lake Como." "This book collects a fascinating series of letters written by theologian-philosopher Romano Guardini in the mid-1920s in which he works out for the first time his sense of the challenges of humanity in a culture increasingly dominated by the machine. With prophetic clarity and unsettling farsightedness, Guardini's letters poignantly capture the personal implications and social challenges of living in the technological age - concerns that have now come to fruition seventy years after they were first raised." Reading ahead is recommended but not necessary. The book is available at <https://www.amazon.com/Letters-Lake-Como-Explorations-Ressourcement/dp/0802801080>. Confessions in the church from 5:45-6:45 pm beforehand.
